

TEACHERS ARE APPRECIATED . . . and to show this gratitude, a lovely tea was given at the YWCA last Thursday afternoon by the membership committee for all women teachers and wives of teachers of the Torrance schools. Introductions were made by Mrs. A. E. Palmer, chairman of the branch committee. Enjoying the Torrance friendliness for its teachers are (from left) Mrs. Ruth Ware, girls' vice principal at Narbonne High School; Mrs. Don Wolf, tea chairman, and Mrs. Robert Hammond, teacher at Torrance High School.

YWCA Committee Honors Teachers at Fall Tea

Wives of the teachers of the Torrance schools and women teachers were entertained at a lovely tea on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 25, at the YWCA. The tea was sponsored by the YWCA membership committee. Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, chairman. Mrs. Don Wolf acted as chairman of the welcoming tea.

Mrs. A. E. Palmer, chairman of the Torrance Branch committee, made the introductions.

From a beautifully decorated tea table Mrs. Alan Moore and Mrs. Roy Iverson served tea.

Tea cookies were provided by Y-Wives and other YWCA members. Assisting in serving were members of the Y-Teens. Extending hospitality were Mmes. William Speck, Don Wolf, Alan Moore, Allen Pyeatt, and Robert Hammond.

During the afternoon Mrs. Rochelle Hudson sang several selections accompanied by Nadine Nichols at the piano.

NEED A CAR WASH?

If so, take a drive over to 1537 El Prado, and the Junior Torrettes, a YWCA sponsored club, will give you the best. This Saturday, Nov. 3, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., the Torrettes are promising prompt and good service.

This is the club's first money-making project, and all residents are asked to cooperate.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

New School PTA Units Are Planned by Local Council

Torrance Council PTA, to be known in the future as Torrance Council of Parent and Teacher Associations, met for the October executive board meeting in the auditorium of Torrance Elementary School.

Mrs. C. F. Malone presented a report of the by-laws committee and the by-laws and standing rules were revised and adopted by the members. A delegation of ten was selected to attend the Home School in Lynwood on Nov. 14. President Mrs. Francis Stockle will head the aggregation from Torrance.

Mrs. William Steinwachs, fourth vice president, submitted the yearly budget for council approval. The report of Mrs. J. R. Allison, second vice president, concerned the publication of a new yearbook containing all unit programs, officers, as well as addresses and phone numbers of personnel pertinent to the Parent, Teacher Associations and the school. Dates of both district and council will be found in this most informative publication.

The week of Oct. 1 through 8 was proclaimed "PTA Membership Week" by Mayor A. Igen, and with the poster seen by all Torrance residents in front of the Civic Auditorium, the number soared to 11,000, announced Mrs. Eldon Morgan, first vice president.

Torrance Council Scholarship was explained by Mrs. Mark Wright. This scholarship will help further the teaching career of a local resident and will be supported primarily by contributions of the units.

The Sepulveda Elementary School invited parents to attend a pre-organizational meeting on Oct. 25 to organize a parent-teacher assn. Some 75 interested parents of students met with Principal O. R. Dexter at the meeting conducted by Mrs. Albin Larson, extension chairman for southern section of 33rd District, and Torrance Council President Mrs. Francis Stockle.

The motion was made that an association be formed and the following were elected to serve on temporary committees: chairman, Mrs. James Craig; secretary, Mrs. A. Raines; nominating committee, Mmes. Paul Halbach, Albert Yackel, Albert Atkins, Denton Cole and Larry Winsheimer; by-laws committee, Mr. John Yanta, Mmes. Allen Hosman, Robert Hill, Albert Wilson, Wesley Boyers.

186th Street

Color slides of the 10th District Health Center were featured at the meeting of the 186th Street School PTA meeting held in the school auditorium on Thursday, Oct. 11. They were narrated by Mrs. Steve Byers, 10th District magazine chairman. Some of the slides were of one of the PTA members who had recently undergone major heart surgery, through the PTA clinic. Many members did not realize that the heart, orthopedic and psychiatric departments are open to anyone regardless of income, and charges are made accordingly.

Edward Reynolds' third grade class, under the direction of Bob Graham, school music teacher, sang three songs, ending with the selection, "Mother Makes a Home." Committee reports were given, and Mrs. Frank Daddi, ways and means chairman, announced a gala Halloween festival would be held on the school grounds on Wednesday, Oct. 21. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the sixth grade mothers. Mrs. Don Dittman was named Mrs. PTA for the day.

Crenshaw

Everybody loves a carnival and at Crenshaw school anticipation runs high as the PTA plans to stage its annual carnival on Nov. 3.

A skating party was held Oct. 22 and a square dance for adults has been slated for Nov. 28.

The association meeting will be held Nov. 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of A. W. Westerlin, 3430 W. 227th St. Proceeds will go to the PTA fund. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Paul Young, Mrs. Max Rich and Mrs. William Taylor.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

I WILL VOTE NO ON PROP. 4

BECAUSE:

Two major oil companies spent over $150,000 to put this on the ballot hoping to confuse voters during a presidential election.

The two major oil companies would be able to control the three man committee to their benefit if the proposition passed.

This bill would not be controlled by our state legislature.

Attorney General Edmund B. Brown, in his personal statement that he would vote no on Prop. No. 4, said that Prop. No. 4 was "bad government" and that it was "fundamentally wrong", and would result in "a maze of endless litigation".

Proposition No. 4 will tie up revenues from State-owned tidelands in oil lease litigation, and thus hold up such State projects as school and highway construction.
